

Greenmeadow Show Handwriting 2018 - Stick Man

Age 5 years and under

"I'm Stick Man, I'm Stick Man, I'M STICK MAN, that's me,
And I long to be back in the family tree."

Age 6 – 10 years

"He tosses and turns, till the frolicking foam washes him up on a beach far from home.
Here comes dad with a spade in his hand. Stick Man, oh Stick Man, beware of the sand!
"A mast!" yells the dad. "An excellent mast! "Hooray! There's a flag on our castle at last."

Age 11-14 years

Stick Lady's lonely. The children are sad. It won't feel like Christmas without their Stick Dad.
They toss and they turn in the family bed. But what is that clattering sound overhead?
Someone is tumbling into their house. Is it a bird, or a bat or a mouse?
Or could it ...yes, could it just possibly be...
"I'm Stick Man, I'm Stick Man, I'M STICK MAN, that's me!
And I'm sticking right here in the family tree."
