Welcome to the Greenmeadow Show featuring the 27th Horticultural and Craft Show

Dear Exhibitors and Visitors,

Welcome to the 2017 Greenmeadow Show programme.

I hope that as you browse this programme you will find something that appeals to you and makes you want to take part. It does not matter if you are an experienced exhibitor or a first time competitor I welcome you to enter and join us on the day. If you need any advice or have any queries do not hesitate to contact us for further information or guidance.

As always Greenmeadow Show promises to be a great day out for all ages. There will be a fantastic line up of exhibitors and a range of activities in the main ring.

Our famous 'Cuddle Corner' will be open, there will be delicious refreshments available from Café Cwtch, tractor rides and all our usual (and more unusual!) animals to meet and enjoy. In a nutshell it will be a fantastic fun family day out and it is also half price admission on this date so make it a definite booking in your calendar now!

I would like to thank all of our competitors in advance for taking part and to thank all of our supporters who help to make the Show such a wonderful event.

Sally Partridge
Director Greenmeadow Community Farm

The Farm Committee would like to take this opportunity to thank all exhibitors past and present for their support and wish them the best of luck in this year's Show.

Preparation and Presentation

The following tips on preparing and presenting exhibits may be useful:

All vegetables should be properly washed and under no circumstances should oil or any other substance be used.

Beetroots, Carrots and Parsnips should have leaves removed, leaving no more than 3" stalks.

Onions, except small salad onions (Spring Onions), should be shown without tops and with roots trimmed.

Potatoes should be washed and displayed on a plastic plate.

Tomatoes should be uniform in size and must have the calyxes left on.

The organisation accepts no responsibility or liability for any loss of property of any exhibitor and it is the responsibility of the exhibitors for the safe removal of exhibits after the Show.

Any produce not required by exhibitors after the Show will be greatly appreciated and will be auctioned to the public.
